WHAT CONSTITUTES A TITLE IX OFFENSE?

Any form of sexual violence/assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking or harassment.

Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome speech or conduct of a sexual nature which includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal, or nonverbal, conduct.

Stalking: Repeatedly following, monitoring, harassing, threatening or intimidating another by phone, mail, electronic communication, or social media without legitimate purpose and with intent to harass, annoy, or alarm another.

Dating/Domestic Violence: A pattern of abusive behavior in any relationship that is used by one partner to control the other partner. This includes behaviors that intimidate, manipulate, humiliate, isolate, frighten, terrorize, coerce, threaten, blame, hurt, injure or wound.

Sexual Violence/Assault: Actual or attempted sexual contact with another person without that person's consent. This includes unwelcome or forced touching of intimate parts and sexual intercourse without consent.

Consent: In the absence of an mutual and enthusiastic demonstration of approval, consent does not exist. If at any time it is reasonably apparent that either individual is hesitant, confused, or uncertain, both parties should stop. Consent cannot be obtained when someone is a minor (under 18), incapacitated, or has disabilities.

Title IX & Sexual Misconduct

SEE
SAY
DO SOMETHING

WHEN VERBALLY OR PHYSICALLY HARASSED

✔ DO

- Admit that a problem exists.
- Tell the offender specifically what you find offensive.
- Keep a written record (date, time, place, witnesses).
- Talk to someone you trust.
- "Report a Concern" to Title IX.
- Call police or Campus Security if you feel unsafe.

✖ DON'T

- Blame yourself for another's inappropriate behavior.
- Ignore the inappropriate behavior.
- Try to handle harassment by yourself.

SUPPORT

- Believe the reporting party.
- Do not blame them or ask "why" questions.
- Offer to go with them for help.
- Encourage them to report the event.

BYSTANDER

There is no single "right" way to intervene

- Discern if there is a need to intervene.
- Decide what action to safely take.
- Directly act or speak, such as asking them, "Are you ok?"
- Distract by removing the victim or changing the focus.
- Delegate by asking others to help.
